Mimico Presbyterian Church welcomed the Sirius Theatrical Company into their Donald Hendry Hall in 2006. Since, the company has been able to offer after school drama programs, teach workshops, rehearse and perform both with and for the Etobicoke community.

"I feel very fortunate to be here," said Heather Dick, Artistic Director. "The support and enthusiasm of the congregation is amazing. It's because of their community engagement that we've been able to develop so many exciting projects and offer such a wide range of programs, and all right in the heart of Mimico."

"We've developed a very supportive relationship," said Barb Wallace, Church Board Member. "We've supported each other on several ventures and become friends on a daily basis. The common goal is to reach out and make Mimico a better community - Sirius through the love of theatre - Mimico Presbyterian through living the love of our faith."

The production of "OLD LOVE" by Norm Foster is presented in the Sirius Studio Theatre in Mimico Presbyterian Church, 119 Mimico Avenue, in Etobicoke.

"OLD LOVE" is a two-actor tour de force. HEATHER DICK, Sirius Theatrical Company's Artistic Director, co-stars as Molly Graham and six other characters. NICHOLAS RICE plays Bud and two other characters.

“OLD LOVE,” Norm Foster’s sparkling and witty look at love the second time around, follows the roller coaster romance of Bud, a salesman, and Molly, his former boss’ wife. After years of ‘doing the right thing’, they both find themselves single and wrestling with who they truly are, what they need in a relationship and where the future will lead them. Self-image, physical desire, loneliness, fear and hidden dreams are all in the cards and tackled through laughter, honesty, anger and hope with hilarious and heart-warming results.
